

“Harding, Shymanski & Company, P.S.C. is not just an accounting firm, they have become like a business partner.”

Don Seibert
President

“I have been involved with Harding, Shymanski & Co. for over 30 years now, and have come to find they can be of service in virtually all facets of our business.

Harding, Shymanski & Co. stays at the leading edge of current and upcoming legislation that might have an impact on how we do business or how we structure certain business transactions.

In these times of tight credit and low margin work, we need an accounting and consulting firm that we can trust is giving us the best available advice so that we can make the right decisions to propel our company into the future.

I don't want just an accounting firm, I want an accountant and friend I can call to discuss potential issues and ideas who will give me true feedback and find the answers I am looking for; Harding, Shymanski & Co is that partner.”
